Schuman Abandons French Government

May Hold New Elections To Ease Crisis

Paris, Sept. 3—(AP)—Premier Robert Schuman gave up trying to form a new government today. The prospects grew that France will have to hold new elections to work herself out of a political deadlock.

General elections are what Gen. Charles De Gaulle has been demanding for months as a step toward his return to power.

Vincent Auriol, president of the republic, did not even designate someone else immediately to attempt to form a government—the usual course. Instead he chose Robert Le Court, a colleague of Schuman's in the Catholic middle-of-the-road party, to conduct an "information mission" and compile an inventory on what the various party leaders propose to do now.

Without Government For Week
France has been without a government for a week since radical Socialist Andre Marie's month-old cabinet—the ninth since the liberation—fell Saturday.

Most observers thought Auriol eventually would ask a radical Socialist, either Marie or former Finance Minister Rene Mayer, to try to form a government.

Le Court, however, has been the popular Republican party's whip in the national assembly and as a working politician gets along well with all parties. It was conceivable he might succeed where Schuman failed.

Would Hold New Elections
An informed popular Republican deputy said, however, there was growing sentiment within the party for a washing of hands of the present stalemate and the holding of new elections.

Small moderate and rightist parties are all in favor of new elections. There is but one way, however, for the national assembly to be dissolved and for new elections to be held. The deputies, who were chosen at elections in November, 1946, would have to pass a law ending their present terms which normally would not expire until 1951.

May Reach Compromise
Many observers believed they would refuse to do this and said this was the chief reason why they believed a compromise will yet be reached among the chief parties of the center—the Socialists, Popular Republicans and radical Socialists.

Even though the parties eventually patched up a cabinet, most observers believed the solution would prove only temporary. More than any other previous cabinet crisis, the present one had raised the question of whether the present assembly, in which the Communists are the largest single party, is any longer representative of the temper of the country.

Burned Out, Macomb Couple Will Start Over

Macomb, Ill., Sept. 3—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willey, whose farm buildings were destroyed by a series of some 200 fires started by their niece, said today they plan to sell off all their livestock and start over again.

Willey is 68 years old. His wife is 64.

Their niece, Womet McNeil, 13, calmly described to state fire authorities last week how she set off the blazes when members of the family "weren't watching me." She said she hoped the fires which she started with matches would fix things so she's sent to live with her mother. Womet's parents were divorced in 1943.

The Willey's said they didn't "blame the girl."

"She's just a child. We don't really know why she did it, but we don't blame her."

Czechoslovakia Mourns Death Of Eduard Benes

Prague, Sept. 3—(AP)—Eduard Benes, who fought a lifetime to keep his beloved Czechoslovakia free from totalitarian rule, died today disheartened.

Twice president of a nation racked and squeezed by two great wars and their turbulent aftermaths, he died in a coma in his country home at Sezimovo Usti. Coughing spasms weakened his tired old heart and he died at 6:10 p.m. He was 64, and died on the ninth anniversary of the beginning of the second world war.

Benes had a stroke a year ago. His arteries hardened. Last Tuesday he became unconscious and only drug injections kept him alive.

Mrs. Benes was with him when he died. A special cabinet meeting was summoned for tomorrow to arrange the funeral. Communist premier Antonin Zapotocky arranged a broadcast to the nation.

The death of the plucky statesman who rose from ranks of the peasants to world acclaim was announced to the people by the Czechoslovak radio just before the regular evening news broadcast. The radio then began playing recorded hymns and dirges.

Longshore Strike Paralyzes West Coast Shipping

San Francisco, Sept. 3—(AP)—West coast shipping was in the grip of a longshore strike paralysis today from the Canadian border to Mexico. The only vessels operating were oil tankers and bulk cargo carriers, both of which come under labor contracts separate from that affecting CIO Longshoremen and allied unions.

Picketing all major coast ports were 12,000 striking members of Harry Bridges' CIO International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union. Another 16,000 seafarers were idled. Caught in port were approximately 120 ships.

Bridges and the shipping industry were "hanging tough" and promising a "finish fight" on the long dispute, which the government unsuccessfully sought to stem by a Taft-Hartley law injunction.

The belligerent longshore leader predicted the strike would last four to six months.

German Military Leaders In Berlin Hold Long Session

Berlin, Sept. 3—(AP)—The four military governors of Germany held their longest session of the week tonight amid speculation they were completing recommendations on settling the east-west Berlin crisis.

Responsible allied officials still declined to give a clue to the progress of the talks, now in their fourth day. This indicated to some observers that considerable hard bargaining was going on.

Reports from Moscow said the western envoys—waiting there to resume negotiations on a higher level—were "satisfied" with the progress being made in Berlin. These reports spoke of "guarded optimism" on the part of the American, British and French envoys to the Kremlin.

The length of today's session—4½ hours—seemed to lend support to speculation in the French-licensed German press that political quarters expected the military governors' report to be "prepared today and transmitted to their governments and the envoys assigned to negotiate with the Kremlin."

Will Campaign For Republicans

Washington, Sept. 3—(AP)—Rep. Anton J. Johnson (R-Ill.) not a candidate for re-election, said today he has agreed to hit the campaign trail for the Republicans this fall.

At the request of Senator Jenner (R-Ind.), chairman of the Republican speakers' bureau, Johnson agreed to be available for campaign speeches after Oct. 1. He is going to Florida in the meantime.

Louisiana Battens Down As Hurricane Roars Over Gulf

New Orleans, Sept. 3—(AP)—Residents of Louisiana's swampy coastland—the French-speaking "Cajon" country—battened down tonight as a hurricane roared toward them through the Gulf of Mexico.

Forecaster W. R. Stevens of the Weather Bureau said the storm, with winds of 75 miles an hour near the center, would probably hit the Central Louisiana coast tomorrow forenoon near Morgan City, about 100 miles west of here.

He predicted winds of steadily increasing force on the coast during the night.

At 3:45 p.m. (Central Standard Time) today the forecaster located the center of the storm about 210 miles southwest of the mouth of the Mississippi river. It was moving toward the coast at 10 miles per hour.

Winds up to 45 miles per hour were reported extending 250 miles from the center to the east and northeast.

The 3:45 advisory was issued immediately after a Navy "Hurricane Hunter" plane from Miami had radioed information from the dead center of the hurricane.

The plane was piloted by Ensign H. E. Ream of Adel, Iowa. Lieutenant C. R. Barron of Grand Rapids, Mich., an aerologist, flew with him.

Warning of the storm came suddenly to coastal residents. The disturbance was reported in the Gulf Tuesday, but Wednesday appeared to be flattening into rain squalls. Then this morning an air force plane discovered the squalls turning into a tropical storm.

Hurricane warnings were ordered for the coast between the mouth of the Mississippi and Vermilion Bay. Storm warnings were displayed eastward to Mobile and westward to Galveston.

Bus Plunges Into Creek, One Dead, Eleven Injured

Chillicothe, Ohio, Sept. 3—(AP)—A six-year-old girl was injured fatally and 11 other persons were hurt today when a Greyhound bus collided with a coal truck on a narrow bridge over a creek north of here.

Elkie Rhodes of Chillicothe died in the accident. Her mother, Mrs. Louise Rhodes, was among four hospitalized with injuries.

The accident happened on a narrow bridge over Kinnikinnick creek. The bus smashed into a side of the bridge and then careened into an embankment, the patrol said.

Paul Hickey, Columbus, identified by troopers as the bus driver, was among those treated at Chillicothe hospital and released.

Hickey telephoned here for all available ambulances shortly after the wreck. The bus was enroute from Columbus to Chillicothe.

Bride, 17, Drowned During Charivari Celebration

Hartford, Ky., Sept. 3—(AP)—Ohio county Judge J. J. Blankenship said today a 17-year-old bride was drowned at nearby McHenry Wednesday night during a charivari celebration for her and her husband.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict the young woman, Mrs. James Willis House, met her death by accidental drowning. Full details were lacking.

Judge Blankenship said he was informed the couple was married Tuesday at Brownsville and went to the home of House's parents Wednesday.

That night, Judge Blankenship said, a group of about 18 persons came to the home for a charivari (or shivaree), a custom very common in many parts of the country. "The group demanded a 'treat' or a 'ducking' in the pond. 'We haven't been swimming lately, so we'll go to the pond,' the bridegroom, 23, was quoted.

House said he jumped into the pond, losing sight of his wife. Her body was recovered later.

Grand Jury Indicts Three Peoria County Officials

Add Reality To Mock Air Battle When B-29 Crew Hits The Silk

CHICAGO MAN RECEIVES 15 YEARS FOR ROBBERY

Chicago, Sept. 3—(AP)—Harry Aughtinbaugh, 32, today was sentenced to 15 years to life imprisonment for his part in a $70,000 holdup. He pleaded guilty yesterday in the midst of his trial on a robbery charge. Judge Alan E. Ashcraft of criminal court pronounced sentence.

Another member of the holdup trio, Howard Brans, will be sentenced Sept. 13 by Judge Frank H. Bickel of criminal court. He also pleaded guilty.

101st Airborne Division Holds Annual Convention

Chicago, Sept. 3—(AP)—One thousand former members of the 101st "Screaming Eagle" army airborne division arrived for their third annual reunion today and tomorrow.

The 101st is the outfit which held firm at Bastogne during the Battle of the Bulge. It was Maj. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe of the 101st who said "nuts" to German surrender demands.

Flying from Ft. Bragg, N. C., for the meeting will be a plane load of former 101st men now with the 82nd Airborne Division.

Coming from Washington is Gen. McAuliffe, president of the division association. Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, wartime commander of the 101st and now superintendent of West Point, also will attend.

The 101st fought in Normandy, Holland, at Bastogne, Alsace, and in Germany. A feature of the festivities will be a tour of the Chicago railroad fair tomorrow. It will be "101st Airborne Day" in honor of the occasion, fair officials announced.

Truman Appoints 3 Men To Study Atomic Disputes

Washington, Sept. 3—(AP)—President Truman today appointed a three-member commission to study labor relations problems in connection with the atomic energy program.

The commission is headed by William H. Davis, former chairman of the war labor board and later director of the Office of Economic Stabilization.

His colleagues are Edwin E. Witte, chairman of the department of economics, University of Wisconsin, and Aaron Horwitz, now engaged in arbitration work in New York City.

A White House announcement said recent disputes at the Oak Ridge (Tenn.) national laboratory and at Los Alamos, N.M., "have raised serious questions as to the sufficiency of present collective bargaining methods in atomic energy installations."

The statement added that the progress of the atomic energy program is dependent upon the wholehearted support of the men and women who work in the atomic energy plants and laboratories.

WHAT HAPPENS NOW?
Astoria, Ore., Sept. 3—(AP)—It's pretty discouraging, being a Selective Service official in Clatsop county.

So far, 54 men have registered for the draft. Forty-nine of them can't be taken: they're veterans or married.

And the remaining five were rejected by the war-time draft.

CHICAGO MAN RECEIVES 15 YEARS FOR ROBBERY

Chicago, Sept. 3—(AP)—Harry Aughtinbaugh, 32, today was sentenced to 15 years to life imprisonment for his part in a $70,000 holdup. He pleaded guilty yesterday in the midst of his trial on a robbery charge. Judge Alan E. Ashcraft of criminal court pronounced sentence.

Another member of the holdup trio, Howard Brans, will be sentenced Sept. 13 by Judge Frank H. Bickel of criminal court. He also pleaded guilty.

One of the crew members was quoted as saying fire broke out in one of the wings after engine trouble. When it seemed impossible to reach England after a 30-minute battle with the flames, he said, the crewmen took to their parachutes and the plane fell into the estuary.

The last two crew members rescued by fishing boat, the dispatches said, were Capt. C. J. Durocher, navigator, and Capt. James Farmer.

The dispatches said the names of the other nine were Lt. Col. Harold Wilson of Oklahoma, Sgt. Walter Doyle Roquet, Frank Palzel, Franklin Dixon, D. Mayo, T. C. Graham, B. E. Thornton, G. H. Burdge and A. Brofft. Roquet was reported to be injured seriously.

The bomber, one of 90 England-based B-29's engaged, was in an "attacking" force in the most extensive air exercises over Britain since the war. Hundreds—the exact number was kept secret—of Britain's latest model fighters, twin-engine Hornets and a dozen other types attempted to repel an "enemy" bombing force. The fights included 600-mile-an-hour meteor jets.

The superforts, flying at 30,000 feet, made daylight attacks against Birmingham, London, Hull, Coventry and other midland and southern industrial centers. Lancasters and twin-engine fighters used as bombers "attacked" tonight.

The daylight attackers swung out over Holland to get away from the radar screen in making their approaches. It was during this maneuver that the Superfort crashed.

Air Marshal Sir William Elliot, head of the fighter command, said the main purpose of the exercise was to test Britain's present defensive equipment against bomber forces which could fly faster and higher than those used by Germany against Britain.

The tests will continue through Monday.

Foresee Exposure Of Third Red Spy Ring At Capitol

Washington, Sept. 3—(AP)—Disclosures of a third Red spy ring allegedly involving government employees will begin on Capitol Hill about the second week in October, the House un-American activities committee announced today.

The timing will bring the hearings right into the thick of the presidential election campaign. Republicans have charged and Democrats have denied that the Roosevelt-Truman administration has been heavily infiltrated by communists.

Chief investigator Robert E. Stripling told reporters that in addition to the new spy probe, the House committee will look into:

1. Communism in Hollywood—or resumption of hearings which began nearly a year ago.

2. Communist inroads among Negroes.

3. Entry of Reds into the United States.

Stripling said the committee, headed by Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.), will resume hearings Sept. 15 on the Hiss-Chambers case, then complete the Elizabeth Bentley hearings before going into the story of a new spy network.

MUSICALLY GIFTED CHILD DIES OF POLIO

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 3—(AP)—Abdul Kahn, 12-year-old child prodigy pianist, died in St. Joseph hospital today of bulbar poliomyelitis. It was the third polio death in three weeks in St. Joseph county.

Abdul's musical talents created a sensation locally when it was discovered that he could play musical scores perfectly from memory after seeing them only once or twice. The negro youngster was called on to play frequently at civic club meetings.

Queen Wilhelmina Will Abdicate In Quiet Ceremony

Amsterdam, Sept. 3—(AP)—Queen Wilhelmina, in a quiet ceremony, surrounded by flowers and grandeur, abdicates tomorrow after 30 years on the Dutch throne.

At the Comment the 68-year-old monarch puts her signature to the instrument of abdication at about 12:30 p.m. (5:30 a.m. CST) she will be succeeded by her 39-year-old daughter, Princess Juliana as the climax to the old queen's golden jubilee celebration.

Juliana will be formally installed as queen of The Netherlands on Monday in a ceremony at the Nieuwe Kerk, near the palace. But at noontime tomorrow she actually will take over officially in an empire of 65,000,000, including 9,000,000 homelanders.

Benes' Brother 'Not Surprised' To Hear Of Death

Milwaukee, Sept. 3—(AP)—John Benes said today he was "not surprised" at word of the death of his younger brother, Eduard, former president of Czechoslovakia.

"He was sick a long time," said John, 78. "I am not surprised."

The ex-Czech president's brother, a former cabinet maker who came to this country 59 years ago, returned for a 22 months visit with his brother two months ago.

"I left because Eduard told me to," he explained. He said John it is time for you to go home. Go now and don't talk about things over here.

"So I left for home last June and I don't want to talk about conditions over there."

The elder Benes said he didn't think anything had been done to his brother by Communists. Eduard was 64.

Brannan Accuses GOP Of Wanting High Food Prices

Washington, Sept. 3—(AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan today said Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and other top Republican leaders want to destroy farmers' price supports by blaming them for "exorbitantly high prices of certain foods."

Brannan told a news conference such an intention by the GOP leaders "has become apparent within the last 24 hours."

He said: "Apparently they are willing to risk this in an effort to create confusion in the minds of the America people about the responsibility for high prices—neglected responsibility with which they stand indicted before the whole nation."

The secretary said reporters just after he had talked with President Truman at the White House.

Brannan accused Republicans in Congress of depriving the commodity credit corporation of power to help farmers store the huge grain crops. He said:

"The special-interest group—the big grain dealers—for whom this crippling action was performed is now in the process of reaping many millions of dollars at the expense of the producers of wheat and other cereal grains. They stand to reap further profits when the big corn crop is harvested."

POPE INDISPOSED
Vatican City, Sept. 3—(AP)—A Vatican source said tonight Pope Pius XII was indisposed at his summer residence, Castel Gandolfo, and has cancelled all audiences for tomorrow. The degree of the pontiff's indisposition was not known but it was not believed to be serious.

Also Reports On Political Corruption

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 3—(AP)—A grand jury today indicted three Peoria county officials on corruption charges and made a stinging report on racketeering ties between gangsters and politicians.

The state's attorney, Roy P. Hull; the sheriff, Earl P. Spahnower, and Charles Somogyi, an investigator for Hull, were charged with "omission and malfeasance in office."

In addition, Hull was indicted for attempted bribery and Spahnower for perjury.

A report accompanying the five indictments declared "there is much evidence that too many public officials are too closely associated with racketeers and gangsters."

Would Open Gambling
The report, signed by Thayer K. Morrow, grand jury foreman, said the jury had heard that gambling was to be opened wide in Peoria county following the fall election, and "territories and zones of operation had already been assigned to various gambling interests."

The grand jury recommended that subsequent grand juries continue the investigation and declared that the Peoria county sheriff's salary should be raised from $4,000 a year to at least $7,500.

Hull and the other two indicted officials were not in the crowded courtroom of circuit judge Henry J. Ingram when the grand jury made its report.

Hull Doesn't Understand
A reporter found Hull in his office. When told that he had been indicted, the state's attorney replied, "I didn't do it. I don't understand what it is all about."

Spahnower and Somogyi were not reached immediately for comment.

The investigation was an outgrowth of the ambush slaying July 26 of Bernie Shelton, member of the notorious Shelton gang who was reputed to have shady business interests in Peoria.

After Shelton's death from a single rifle bullet, his widow, Genevieve, made public three wax recordings which purported to reproduce an offer by an emissary of Hull to quash an assault indictment against Shelton and two of his pals, Roy Walker and John Kelly. The bribe for fixing the assault case was mentioned at $25,000 in the recordings.

Made At Shelton Home
Jack Ashby, a Shelton lieutenant, said the recordings were made June 26 at Shelton's home and carried a conversation between the gangster and Roy Gatewood, a Peoria politician.

Hull denied any complicity in a bribe plot and asked the grand jury investigation. Judge Ingram recalled the June grand jury and named Verle W. Safford, Peoria attorney, as special prosecutor to push the investigation.

The grand jury, 16 of whose 19 members were women, said it completed its work a week earlier than expiration of its tenure because of "absence of witnesses" and ramifications of testimony which would take "months of checking by trained investigators."

SIMPLE SAMOA FOR THE SIMPLE SAMOANS—AND THAT'S THAT

Another iron curtain has been rung down. And this time it isn't the Kremlin that is responsible, but our own government. Worst of all, this new decision slams the door to Paradise (Pacific Local No. 1) by practically barring one-way passages to American Samoa.

It all began when the U. S. delegation to the UN regaled their colleagues with tales of this South Pacific outpost. Newspapers carried accounts of the tantalizing discourse, and it wasn't long before Washington began getting a good many requests for information and applications for passage.

Now, there's nothing new about Samoa. The islands are right where they always have been, 14 degrees south of the equator and approximately in the middle of nowhere. Except for an occasional hurricane there's scarcely a word that lovers of a beneficent Mother Nature can say against them.

In Samoa it's still always summertime, and the living is still easy. Average temperature in the "hot" month is 80 degrees, and in the "cold" month it gets down to around 75. Food is to be had for the fishing or picking—coconuts and bananas and breadfruit and such. Income taxes are $5 a head (adult males only) and about 90 per cent of the people don't work for money, because who needs money when practically everything you want is for free?

All this, as we said, is not new. For years before the war there was an intermittent exodus to the islands of Americans who had the energy to get up and go so they could be lazy the rest of their lives. But there was no stampede.

Then came this thoughtless reminder of the free and indolent life at the UN meeting. Its echoes fell upon the ears and ulcers of thousands with a touch of infinite calm.

It began to look as if everybody wanted to get away from it all at once. So the government had to step in and make a decision. It was in many ways a cruel decision, but probably necessary. As a result about the only persons who will be permitted to go to Samoa and stay there are native or part-native Samoans, or someone married to a Samoan. (Where you'd get to meet the prospective bride or groom outside Samoa the government didn't say.)

It seems a shame. But, as the Navy said, special measures had to be taken "to preserve the simple, primitive beauty of Samoa." For, sure as you're born, any full-scale trek to the islands would include some who would want to take civilization with them. And the first thing you know there would be radios and television and juke boxes, and chambers of commerce putting out tourist literature, and people fighting with their neighbors over the coconuts.

All of which leaves us with the familiar but still rather depressing thought that nobody can really louse up a good thing like people.

CORN IS A Quonset*
IS EXTRA MONEY IN THE BANK

Storing your corn in a Quonset... on your own farm... to sell at the right time—that, indeed, means extra money in the bank, because your corn will bring in extra profits.

You will save a lot by cutting storage and hauling costs. You will save a lot more by holding your corn until you can sell to your best advantage.

Look at the arithmetic. A low-cost Quonset 32 (32 by 36 feet), erected and equipped with ventilating tunnels and fans, holds up to 5,000 bushels of unshelled corn. Over the many years that the permanent all-steel Quonset will serve you, your corn storage costs per season become almost negligible.

Inspect a Quonset farm building in your neighborhood—see how readily it can be adapted to grain storage use, how valuable it will be for other farm uses between storage seasons.

Call us today—make sure of having your Quonset in time. It's here, for immediate delivery and quick erection.

QUONSET ADVANTAGES

- 1 Low Cost—No other type of permanent building has the Quonset's superiorities at so low a price.
- 2 Quick Erection—Stran-Steel arch-rib construction means jiffy-fast completion.
- 3 Permanent—All-steel; durable, vermin-proof, fire-resistant, weather-proof.
- 4 Adaptable—Nailable Stran-Steel framing makes it easy to install bin liners, partitions, etc. at little cost.
- 5 All-Year Usefulness—Ideal for storing implements and machinery, and for many other farm uses, as well as for grain storage.

CONTOURS And TERRACES

Boost Crop Yields

MORE than 30 per cent average increase in crop yields—that was the reward of 9,000 farmers recently checked on results of their soil conservation program. Terraces and contours were responsible for much of this extra yield. By holding rainfall, they provided "natural irrigation" for slopes.

Almost all crops will respond to better moisture control. If you have sloping fields, farming on the contour, terracing or strip cropping almost certainly will pay you a profit.

Terracing is no longer a job for engineers and heavy machinery.

You can build terraces successfully with your regular farm equipment. Allis-Chalmers has developed practical methods of terracing, strip cropping, and building graded waterways with your farm tractor and tractor plow.

The Allis-Chalmers handbook "You Have What It Takes To Contour and Terrace" will show you where you need terraces and how to build them. Ask us for a copy... it's free.

2,137 Pupils Enroll In Public Schools

Enrollment in the city schools this fall is normal. So said Dr. Darrell Blodgett, city superintendent of schools. This year's total enrollment, he said, is 2,137. There were 2,176 pupils enrolled last fall.

The only trouble spot this fall is at Lafayette school, the superintendent said. Forty-six pupils entered the first grade. This means that there will be some crowding in the first and second grades, he stated. "We cannot remedy the problem immediately because there are no more available rooms at the Lafayette school."

David Prince showed some drop last year 345 pupils were in the seventh and eighth grades. This year there are 309.

Figures for the ward schools are Jefferson, 307; Lafayette, 280; Franklin, 226; and Washington, 231. Total enrollment for the high school is 804.

All schools met Friday for a regular day except the high school. There only upperclassmen met. Tuesday will be the first "normal" day. Labor day will be a holiday in the public schools.

Supt. Blodgett stated that the opening of the cafeteria at Franklin school has been delayed, pending the completion of the rooms. He stated that the cafeteria should be ready for operation within two weeks.

New locker, shower, and rest rooms are near completion in the David Prince building north of the high school. These rooms are lined with ceramic tiling, and are modern in every detail.

I. V. C. Reinstates 6 Million Dollars Of Life Insurance

Service officers of the Illinois Veterans commission assisted veterans in reinstating more than six million dollars in National Service Life Insurance on July 31, the final date for reinstatement without a physical examination, Homer G. Bradney, Administrator, announced Friday.

Offices of the commission, located throughout the state, remained open until a late hour on Saturday, the 31st, to permit veterans, who could not leave their work during the day to take final advantage of this wartime benefit. Total amount of reinstatement was $6,181,500.

Bradney also reminded veterans that they still may reinstate their lapsed GI insurance by passing a physical examination and paying two months' premiums in advance.

The administrator also called attention to the recent extension for five years of GI term insurance. He urged veterans desiring to renew their term insurance for another five-year period to determine the exact effective date of their policy and to make application before the old period expires. In renewing insurance for another five-year period veterans must remit their premium at their attained age to their nearest birthday for the new period.

Due to the volume of business in the NSLI offices, the veteran should not depend upon being notified as to the exact date his policy will expire and the amount of his new premium rate.

For further information and assistance in insurance problems, veterans should see their Illinois Veterans Commission service officer immediately. In Morgan county the office is located at 6-7 Morrison Block, Jacksonville, Illinois.

The program will be presented by Mrs. Ludella Seymour, whose subject will be "By Design or By Whim," and Mrs. H. G. Strang, chairman of the library and education department.

Officers of the club include Mrs. L. C. Collins, president; Mrs. H. G. Strang, vice president; Mrs. S. B. Robinson, secretary treasurer.

Expect To Complete Arnold Subway Soon

The new subway east of Arnold which will replace the treacherous underpass on routes 36 and 54, probably will be open before cold weather sets in. This information was received from highway officials in Springfield.

They stated that there has been no work stoppage on the project. Such a rumor is current. Final work will be done as soon as the Washburn railroad does necessary work on its tracks and on its signal equipment.

The contract is held by the O'Connor Construction company of Springfield.

The officials stated that the highway, which will run from near Woodson to Greenfield, will be completed next year. Completion of the highway from east of Murrayville to Woodson has been held up by litigation involving a condemnation suit. The suit was settled about one month ago.

However, they said, the steel shortage will not permit construction until at least the beginning of the year.

Contracts for that section of the highway between Murrayville and Woodson have not as yet been let. The highway has been completed from Greenfield to a point east of Murrayville.

C. D. of A. Gives Many Articles To Assist Charities

Hundreds of articles of infants' and children's clothing for the Pope's warehouse were collected by members of Court Our Saviour, Catholic Daughters of America, in the opening meeting of the season held on Thursday evening at the Knights of Columbus club. Miss Gusse Duffner and Mrs. Florence Henry arranged a display of the clothing for the inspection of the members.

Father John Morris, assistant at the Church of Our Saviour, who directed activities for the Convert League last year, was present and outlined plans for the coming year. Meetings will begin at 8 o'clock on the third Thursday of each month beginning October 21 and will follow the plan of last year with a lecture by Father Morris preceding a social hour.

Mrs. A. W. Becker, Medical Missions chairman, requested contributions for a box of summer clothing for immediate use to be sent to the Jesuit mission in St. Louis, and winter clothing, toys, games, or books for a Christmas box to be sent in October to the Indian mission in South Dakota. She also urged members to continue to save postage stamps, particularly foreign stamps, in which case the whole envelope is requested. Many missions are completely supported by means of salvaged stamps.

Miss Gusse Duffner was elected delegate and Mrs. Emily McNeely, alternate, to the convention of the Springfield Diocesan Council of Catholic Women which will be held at the St. Nicholas Hotel in Springfield on October 9 and 10. Outstanding speakers at the convention will include Rev. James Keller, M.M., Miss Ellen Egan, and Miss Ruth Craven, national secretary. Reservations for the banquet on Sunday, October 10, are limited, and those wishing to attend are asked to write Mrs. Chas. Corcoran, 1134 West Monroe street, Springfield, as soon as possible.

Word has been received that the second CARE package has been received by the Polish family adopted by Court Our Saviour, and everyone is urged to continue sending clothing to Europe's needy families. Announcement was made that the social committee for the year will consist of Mrs. Anna Spreen, chairman; Mrs. Virginia Parran, co-chairman; and Mrs. Barbara Jordan, Mrs. Louise Smith, Mrs. Dorothy Perry, Mrs. Bernadine Lale, and Mrs. Frances Yording.

After the business meeting, presided over by Miss Resa Walsh, Grand Regent, Mrs. Mary Standley presented Miss Janice Mason, who, accompanied by Miss Mary Catherine Standley, sang "Ave Maria" from Mascagni's opera, Cavalleria Rusticana and as an encore "Marie Antoinette's Song" by Jacobson. Total receipts included 4,000 hogs, 1,200 cattle, 200 calves and 1,500 sheep.

New York Stock Market

New York, Sept. 3—(P)—The stock market slowly worked its way into lower price ground today.

Declines were mostly fractional, few topping a point. A good handful edged into the plus column.

Trading started off briskly but soon slowed. Turnover for the day was at the rate of about 650,000 shares after reaching around 900,000 each in two preceding sessions.

Lower prices were more the result of an indifferent attitude among investors and speculators, rather than aggressive selling. Many brokers took off early for a long holiday weekend.

Packing house stocks were among the weakest following omission of a common stock dividend by Armour & Co. Armour and Cudahy each sold at 1948 lows and Wilson was marked down.

Also lower were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Deere, Westinghouse Electric, and Johns-Manville. Higher were U. S. Rubber, Caterpillar, Tractor, Western Union, American Can and Standard Oil (N.Y.).

Corporate bonds loomed along without getting far one way or another. U. S. governments held steady in over-the-counter trade.

CASH CORN, SEPT. FUTURES DIP; OTHER FUTURES HOLD OWN

Chicago, Sept. 3—(P)—The country unloaded much more corn on cash dealers than was wanted, knocking cash prices and the September futures quotation sharply lower. But other corn futures, as well as wheat and oats, held up fairly well.

Purchases of corn on a to-arrive basis were placed at more than 200,000 bushels prior to the close of the cash market. Of this, 194,000 bushels was old crop grain and 50,000 bushels new crop.

No. 1 yellow sold at $1.95 to $1.97 against $2.07 to $2.10 yesterday.

The break in the cash corn price was reflected in the September future, which tumbled more than 4 cents at times. New crop corn showed an easier trend, largely on a private crop forecast of a slight improvement in prospects between Aug. 1 and Sept. 1.

There was not much activity in wheat, which hovered around previous closing levels. Oats showed some strength at times. This grain was helped by shipping sales from here of around 175,000 bushels.

Receipts were: Wheat 12 cars, corn 99, oats 19, and soybeans 13.

Wheat closed 1-1/4 higher, September $2.21, corn was higher, September 73, rye was unchanged, December $1.57, and soybeans were 1/2 to 1 cent lower, November $2.48.

Snyder Resigns As Ram Coach

Los Angeles, Sept. 3—(P)—Bob Snyder resigned as head coach for the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League late today. Clark Shaughnessy was named as his replacement.

President Dan Reeves made the announcement and said Snyder asked to step out because of ill health.

Snyder, whose club lost a 21-0 exhibition game before more than 77,000 fans last night to the Washington Redskins, later said he has been under treatment for several months because of ulcers.

The announcement, which came as a complete surprise here, was made just before Snyder was to board a plane with his team for two games in Hawaii.

Pitchers' Duel, Vengeance Tilt On Park Card

Officials of the Recreation club Friday pointed out two "naturals" in the official program for softball play at the park diamond.

The Knights of Columbus will tangle with the American Legion in the second game Sunday night. Fans expect a pitcher's battle. Paul Blackman of the Legion hurled a no-hitter in Thursday's game against the House of Clay and Russ Young of the K.C.'s worked out a one-hitter Friday night while his teammates took the Implement Dealers to the cleaners by the tune of 12-1.

On Wednesday the Implement Dealers will do their best to avenge their defeat in the Mt. Sterling invitational tourney when they meet the Brown county aggregation. The locals lost by a 1-0 score two weeks ago, after battling on even terms for 12 innings.

No games have been listed for Thursday or Friday evening. These dates have been left open in case earlier schedules are raised out.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 3—(P)—Contracts totaling $154,370 for improvements at two state institutions in Jacksonville were awarded today by the state division of architecture and engineering.

The contracts cover alterations, electrical and plumbing work, and general work at the Illinois School for the Blind and the Illinois School for the Deaf.

ACCEPTS DAREDEVIL'S CHALLENGE, INJURES 3

Oakland, Calif., Sept. 3—(P)—"All right, let's see if you can do it." With that challenge, an unidentified spectator mounted a motorcycle at a carnival motordome last night, rode up—and over—the vertical walls of the dome and sent three people to the hospital with minor injuries.

Patrolmen Robert E. Davis, who investigated, said accounts varied but, according to one story, the spectator had been heckling the stunt rider and was challenged to try the ride himself.

NO ROOM IN WORLD FOR COMMUNISM: WARREN

San Francisco, Sept. 3—(P)—There is no room in the world today for international communism or its likes, Governor Earl Warren told the California American Legion convention today.

The Republican vice presidential nominee denounced Russian leadership, which he said was not yet abandoned "its attempts to bludgeon a way for communism across national borders."

This, he declared was the reason "our relations with Russia have become serious."

Five Teams Remain Unbeaten In Jr. Baseball Tourney

Dayton, O., Sept. 3—(P)—Five teams remained undefeated as the Junior tournament of the National Amateur Baseball Federation went into third round play this afternoon.

They were Detroit, Cleveland, Dearborn, Birmingham and Fort Wayne.

Fifteen teams remained in action following the elimination of five teams in the second round. Those put out by two losses were Dayton, defending champion; Peoria, Ill., Schenectady, N. Y., Altoona, Pa.; and Youngstown, O.

Pairings for the third round: Lorain, O., vs. Springfield, Mass.; Pittsburgh vs. Atlanta; Louisville vs. Philadelphia; Springfield, O., vs. Chicago; Covington, Ky., vs. Peru, Ill.; Detroit vs. Cleveland, and Dearborn vs. Birmingham (night game).

Fort Wayne drew a bye in the third round.

Third round play will put out five more teams since five of the games bring to gether teams that have suffered one loss each.

The finals will be held Monday, Labor Day.

Peru beat Altoona 10-1 in the second round.

Pepsi-Cola And Knights Annex Softball Wins

Pepsi-Cola was all set to establish some sort of a new world's record when they took a grand total of 22 runs off the offerings of three New Method pitchers in the first two innings of Friday night's opener. Curtis came along in the second and stabilized the game. The score of the five inning fray was 22-6.

Altogether 16 batsmen of the winning squad went to first base via the charity route.

Orris went all the way for Pepsi-Cola.

Young, hurler for the Knights of Columbus nine, showed a no-hit performance until Herschel Heaton of the Implement Dealers slapped out a left field double in the fifth frame. The lodge had a relatively easy night of it, copping the tilt by a 12-1 tally.

Young was also the heavy stickman for his crowd, blasting out a double in the first and taking the initial sack on a satisfactory bunt in the fourth.

The line scores:

Pepsi-Cola 22 10 3

New Method 6 5 0

Orris and Busey; Busey, Winger, Gotschall, Curtis and Curtis, McQuive.

Implement Dealers 1 1 7

Knights 12 10 2

Polish Security Police Arrest Catholic Leader

Warsaw, Sept. 3—(P)—Polish security police released Msgr. Zygmunt Kaczynski from prison tonight after detaining him for 72 hours. He is the chief spokesman for the Catholic Hierarchy in Poland.

An official announcement said Kaczynski, confidant and close friend of August Cardinal Hlond, primate of Poland, would be kept under surveillance pending completion of a security police investigation.

A government spokesman said Kaczynski was arrested in his apartment behind all Saints church in Warsaw on Tuesday and accused of "Anti-State activities."

Kaczynski's release came as reports spread that thousands of his parishioners were planning a demonstration demanding that he be freed.

The official announcement said security police were investigating the alleged connection of Kaczynski with the departure from Poland last year of Karol Popiel who went to France. Popiel was president of the Christian labor party which was banned by the Polish government.

Giants Knock Dodgers Out Of First Place

Brooklyn, N.Y., Sept. 3—(P)—The New York Giants gained sweet revenge for previous humiliations at the hands of the Brooklyn Dodgers today, dumping their interborough rivals out of first place with a pair of 7-5 and 6-3 triumphs in an important double-header at Ebbets Field.

The double defeat not only dropped the Dodgers into second place, a game and a half behind the Boston Braves, but left them with a scant half-game advantage over the third-place St. Louis Cardinals.

Giants manager Leo Durocher gambled with two secondary starting pitchers and got away with both. Clint Hartung, who started the opener, failed to get past the fourth inning, but Andy Hansen, the seldom-used right hander, went the route in the finale to register his third victory of the season, and his second over the Dodgers.

Thirteen Year Old Boy Hangs Self

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 3—(P)—The body of 13-year-old Ronald Eugene Mass was found hanging today in the yard of a concrete mixing plant.

Police Sgt. James Costello said playmates of the boy told him a group of them had been playing "hanging" across the street from the plant. He said they told him Mass left the group with an announcement that he was going to hang himself.

Costello said the boy presumably climbed a 25-foot ladder, put a noose around his neck and secured the rope. He said Mass slipped or fell through a trapdoor used for dumping concrete.

NOT EVEN DANGER MAKES HIM FORGET

Astoria, Ore., Sept. 3—(P)—Not even danger makes 8-year-old Jerry Montgomery forget the high cost of everything.

Jerry, a novice swimmer, fell from a bridge into the swift Mechanic river; started struggling toward shore. Some yelled at him to discard his heavy shoes.

"No siree," he called back. "They cost too much."

The shoes and Jerry made it.

Japanese GI Amazes Greeks

Kozane. Second Army Headquarters—When hundreds of American soldiers and officers poured into Kozane en route to the Grammos front recently, Macedonian villagers in their black knickers and voluminous skirts couldn't control their curiosity. Kozane folk lined the cobble-stoned streets to get a good view of them.

Within a month the khaki-clad Americans became part of the natural Kozane scene, but there was one "foreigner" who continued to attract their attention. He is 23-year-old Harold Yamamoto. He was the first Japanese he had ever seen.

The only American Japanese in Greece, Harold was born in Ogden, Washington, and spent most of his life in Brigham City, Utah.

"I like Athens o. k.—but I miss football and baseball," Harold says. To compensate, he spends most of his free time reading "western" stories.

THE STORY: Hillary Shenstone, Irish-sewerer agent, recalls lying wounded in the Indian desert beside a crashed plane, after completing a dangerous mission. He remembers feeling a desperate need to return to England and "Sun Parthing," the family's country home. (He doesn't know that the house has been left and that dreamy, 17-year-old Sarah, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return.) Next thing Hillary is aware of, he is back in London dropping in at his club. But no one seems conscious of his presence. Hillary learns that his brother, George, has been cutting in with Alice, Hillary's fiancée. At first, he thinks it's all a dream. Then with dismay he overhears a report of his own death. Shocked at first, he later decides to enjoy the situation. Next day he visits his mother's town house. George and his mother are awaiting Alice for lunch. They too, are unaware of his presence. His mother tells George that she has had another letter from the people at Sun Parthing. "What people?" asks Hillary.

"The Archers again?" George sighed with resignation. "Well, what do they want now?" "They want that tree down at the end of the drive where it joins the road," replied his mother. "They say it's dangerous—in the way, you know."

"That tree has been there a good many years and nobody has run afoul of it yet," said George. "Well, apparently the butcher's boy did smash himself up, on his bicycle. There was a car coming from the left, and in avoiding it the boy hit the tree and broke his collar-bone."

"They're a sticky nuisance, those people. I almost wish we'd never let the place!"

"Let Nuns Farthing!" cried Hillary in surprise.

"If they'd only buy it—" she began, and hesitated.

"You can't sell a place like that nowadays, mater, the market is stiff with them. It's too big and too far from town—and too expensive to keep up!"

"Your father was fond of it."

"You'll find out if you're not careful," Hillary told him. "I suppose it's worth it," reflected George gloomily, and sampled the White Lady.

THEIR mother laid down the letter and sat watching George with her chin in her hand. "George," she said suddenly, as though making up her mind, "you needn't think I haven't noticed." "Noticed what, old lady?" said George, blurring.

"You're in love with Alice. I'm your mother and I can tell."

"Ah, here we go," said Hillary with satisfaction. "How about it, George?"

"You're much too clever, aren't you, mum? Besides, she's always run after Hillary, ever since they were kids."

"I know," she agreed gravely. "I never could understand it."

"Couldn't you, dear?" said Hillary, with rueful laughter.

George was looking self-conscious and pleased.

"Bless you, mum, you are partial, aren't you?"

"Oh, George, you ought to know by now that you're my favorite son."

"There you are, George, that's plain enough!" The private view had taken a slightly unexpected turn, but Hillary was still an interested spectator. It was not really news to him that George was the favorite. But all the same, it was odd to hear her say it, so shamelessly.

"You may think I don't think of these things, but I do," his mother went on to assure George seriously. "And that's why I know Hillary isn't the marrying kind, and the sooner Alice finds that out the better!"

"Yes, but in the meantime—until she does find out—I can't very well interfere, you know," George reminded her virtuously.

"Oh, you men!" she cried in exasperation. "When will you understand that a woman wants to be won?"

"Um—I see," said George, and was visibly turning things over in his mind.

"Careful, mother, you're giving him ideas," Hillary cautioned her. (To Be Continued)

Contends States' Rights Democrats Have Left Party

Washington, Sept. 3 — (AP) — A Democratic national committee official suggested today that "any and all" committee members who are supporting the states' rights presidential ticket should resign from the committee.

William J. Primm, Jr., assistant to national chairman J. Howard McGrath, made the proposal. He said such Democrats have "left the Democratic party."

Primm's statement came in the midst of a controversy between Republicans and Democrats over Communist party endorsement of the Roosevelt-Truman ticket in 1944.

Also, Secretary of Agriculture Brannan spoke out again on the issue of government support of some farm prices. Brannan said the GOP presidential nominee, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and other party leaders want to destroy these supports by blaming them for high food prices.

GOP national chairman Hugh D. Scott, Jr., demanded that President Truman say whether he accepted Communist endorsement as Mr. Roosevelt's running mate. The Democratic national committee replied that President Roosevelt renounced such support before his fourth term election.

Primm's resignation proposal referred specifically to Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, South Carolina, State's rights presidential candidate, and Col. Marion Rushton, Alabama, who represent their states on the national committee.

Tenant House On John Ransom Farm Destroyed By Fire

A tenant house on the John Ransom farm south of the city on the shores of Lake Jacksonville was completely destroyed by fire which originated in a summer kitchen about 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. Only a few articles of furniture were removed from the house. The Jacksonville fire department was called to the scene but the house was destroyed by the time the firemen arrived.

The blaze was discovered by a daughter of Eddie King, who with his wife and five children live in the house. The 15 year old girl was working in the kitchen when she opened a door to a "summer kitchen" and was greeted by a wave of flames. She ran to the residence of Arthur Cully nearby. Mr. Cully operates the farm.

Cully ran to the tenant house and sent a boy to a nearby house to call the Jacksonville firemen. He was joined by several neighbors who assisted him in removing some of the household furnishings from the building.

When the firemen arrived at the scene about 40 minutes after the fire started they found the farm home in ruins and no effort was made to wet the embers because no buildings were near.

Mr. and Mrs. King were in Jacksonville shopping when the fire started. The origin of the blaze has not been determined.

Captain Ernest Vieira and Fireman Pat Meline and Edward Mack manned the truck that went to the Ransom farm.

Ways To Improve Memory Told In Optimist Address

The average man wouldn't forget to mail the letter in his inside pocket or to wind the alarm clock before retiring if he followed the methods of professional memory experts.

Rev. Roy S. Hulian told the Optimist club last night.

Rev. Hulian, who attended a series of classes given by a memory expert in Tennessee, said anyone can cultivate a retentive memory. He said association of names with objects or incidents is one of the keys used in whetting the powers of recollection.

The local minister recalled that the appeal of the memory expert was so strong that he induced 100 business men to enroll for a two night course. A portion of the proceeds of the course was turned over to the service club which sponsored the event in the Tennessee city.

Using a blackboard to demonstrate some of the techniques of a professional in memory, Rev. Hulian jotted down a list of common place objects. Each of these was numbered.

Turning his back to the blackboard, he invited Optimists to call out various numbers, for which he repeated the corresponding order or command.

Rev. Hulian explained that he did not pose as a memory expert, but merely showed how simple it is for the average person to remember articles or orders without reference to a written list.

Attorney M. Brooks Byus presided at the meeting in the absence of President Paul Fenstermaker.

CARE Announces New Lard Parcel For Overseas Use

A new package to help meet one of the greatest single needs of undernourished European families—a 10-pound package of lard—was announced today by Paul Comly French, CARE executive director.

At the same time, Mr. French made known that CARE was withdrawing its cotton package. He explained that this step was in line with CARE's policy of responding to changing conditions overseas. He said that the cotton supply in Europe is steadily improving and that production there makes it unnecessary for CARE to continue offering its cotton package.

The new lard parcel is being offered at $5.50 and orders may now be sent to CARE, 50 Broad street, New York 4, New York, with delivery guaranteed in Austria, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, France, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Netherlands, Poland, and the American, British, and French zones of Germany.

CARE's addition of the lard package is the result of surveys disclosing that the lack of fats remains one of Europe's most serious nutritional problems. These findings were confirmed by Mr. French, on a recent trip to Europe, where he conferred with CARE Chiefs of Mission in various countries.

As is the case with all other CARE packages, the lard will be admitted to Europe without duties or taxes of any kind, and the recipients will lose no part of their regular rations. It may be sent to relatives or friends or designated groups.

Police Journal Award To Wiant And Spreen

Sgt. Lyle Wiant and Officer Albert Spreen, Jacksonville policemen who surprised two gunmen during a stick-up at the Steele Brothers tavern shortly after midnight on May 6, received the Illinois Police Journal merit award for the month of May.

In announcing the award, the bi-monthly Chicago publication carried a photograph of the two police heroes, along with a complete story of the gun-battle which resulted in the death of Charles H. Coleman, 50, and the subsequent arrest of Lendal Lee Lair, 31, who was wounded by the policemen. Lair later confessed to a number of armed robberies and is now serving in the state penitentiary at Chester.

The photograph shows Capt. Ike Flynn congratulating the two men. Snapped by the Journal Courier photographer, it appeared in the issues of May 7. The editorial, "In Line of Duty," which appeared in the Journal Courier the same day, was reproduced in full by the magazine.

The editors of the Police Journal give $15 awards monthly to the law-enforcing officers who displayed exceptional valor in their war against criminals. Wiant and Spreen won top honors for the month of May.

Revise Communist Report At World Church Council

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The report to the world council of churches condemning both Communism and capitalism was revised today along lines proposed by Charles F. Taft, a brother of the United States senator.

The original report by a section of 125 delegates to the assembly of 450 said "the Christian churches should reject the ideologies of both Communism and capitalism."

The revised version said the churches should reject the "ideologies of both Communism and Laissez-Faire (uncontrolled) capitalism."

Taft, an Episcopal lay delegate, earlier had told the press he would propose the revision because "while there is an ideology of Communism with all its inconsistencies, capitalism exists in so many variations that it was always difficult, and is today impossible, to state an ideology which even approximately represents capitalism in every country of the world."

Lauding New York's workers, the governor said they "play an historic role in being an object lesson to the nation."
